Remarks: In May 2021 Glastonbury High School administrators reported the discovery of an Adolf Hitler quote, which was incorrectly attributed to George Floyd, printed under the picture of a GHS student in the school's yearbook. Another student's quote referenced drugs and the name "Dzhokhar Tsarnaev", the Boston Marathon bomber. After conducting an internal administrative review, the case was referred to the police department for a criminal investigation. As a result of both investigations, 18 year old Tryon Hollister (a GHS student himself), was arrested by warrant on two counts of Computer Crimes 3rd Degree. He is accused of unlawfully accessing a computer database students used to submit their yearbook quotes, and changing the two students' quotes prior to publication of the yearbook in October 2020.
